

Brandy Wolf

Objectives:

Seeking career opportunity in the art field to utilize current skills, learn new techniques, and contribute innovative ideas

Education:

St. Cloud State University-May 2005

BFA: Studio Art, minor: Creative writing

Work Experience:

Coldspring (October 1999-present)

Digitally design carved custom murals, emblems and sculptures for Private Estates and Community Mausoleums

Solely responsible for hand diamond etching portraits, landscapes, animals, custom designs, etc. onto granite and ensuring product completion in a timely sufficient manner

Skills and Abilities:

Collaborate with project manager/customer for design approvals

Prepare detailed pdfs and precise cut files and printed mask for production

Work with CNC Operator and Sculptor to create machinable sculptable file

Assist the foundry in the creation of custom digital files for bronze sculpted emblems

Assist Design Development in the creation of 3d elements for rendering precontract

3d printable files sufficient to make models for foreign fabrication

Paint hand diamond and Laser etchings, flat and shape carvings, Photo masked stones, etc. using a variety of paints and techniques

5-S on a daily basis

Participate in internal and external cross training

Ability to perform well under time sensitive deadlines

Flexible hours

Activities:

Active participant in the HP Outreach committee, dedicated to seeking and participating in volunteer opportunities for CSG employees

Software Knowledge:

Microsoft Word, Outlook, CorelDraw 3X, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, Monucad, JDE, AS400, Z-Brush, ArtCam

References available upon request.